NEISWA CLASS A TOURNAMENT

The tournament began in 1962 as a single elimination event with eight schools. Phillips Andover, Phillips Exeter, Northfield Mount Hermon, Tabor, and Worcester are the schools that remain from the original eight. Governor Dummer and Milton now compete in the Graves Kelsey Tournament, while Choate Rosemary Hall left the A's in '66 to compete in the Ct. State League but returned in '97 to the A League. Prior to 1962 all schools, public and private, competed in a single New England Championship Tournament.
